1. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Throughout claims 1-26, the uses of the following relative terms are indefinite and unclear in context in that there is no reference level to render the terms meaningful in context: "relatively low impedance"; "relatively low gain"; and "relatively high gain."

On line 3 of independent claim 1, it is unclear what is meant in context by the phrase "change target marker above an expected sensing region of the probe."

In claims 1, 3, 4, 9, 12, 13, 18, 21, and 22, the uses of the phrase "to compensate the level time for properties of vapor above the material level" are indefinite and unclear in context.

On line 7 of independent claim 9, it is unclear in context what is meant by "including a fiducial pulse the reference marker." It appears that text and/or punctuation may be missing.

Bridging lines 9 and 10 of independent claim 18, the use of "normally operating" is indefinite and unclear in context.

On line 2 of claim 19, the use of "operatively associate [sic]" is indefinite and unclear in context. Perhaps, "operatively associated" was meant. If "operatively associated was meant, that also would be indefinite and unclear in context as to whether there was a connection claimed or not.

Dependent claims 2-8, 10-17, and 19-26 are unclear in that they depend from unclear independent claims 1, 9, and 18.

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The examiner-cited prior art herewith is of general interest for showing prior art guided-radar-wave level-measuring devices. None of these cited references appears to compensate for vapor above the material level as claimed in Applicants' claims.
